Vivekanand Vidya Vihar's Annual Function

Vivekotsav - Aavhan Prakrti ka

In a grand celebration titled "Vivekotsav - Aavhan Prakrti ka," Vivekananda Vidya Vihar Maral Sarovar embraced the theme of sustainable development. The event, skillfully organized by the school's students, illuminated the importance of nature preservation and the practical implementation of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). This enlightening showcase aimed to raise awareness among the audience, both in-person and online, emphasizing the critical need for SDGs in contemporary society.

The presence of esteemed Chief Guest, Mr. Shekhar Agarwal, Chairman and Managing Director of Maral Overseas Limited, and Special Guest Mrs. Shashi Agarwal, LNJ Schools mentor and trustee, added prestige to the program. Their acknowledgment emphasized the significance of the evening along with its seamless and impeccable organization of the event.

The occasion also featured the felicitation of outstanding students, recognizing their exceptional achievements in academics and sports. Beyond celebrating nature's beauty, the event served as a catalyst for instilling holistic values and honoring excellence in education and sports.

Investiture Ceremony

Fostering Leadership and Patriotism

On the auspicious occasion of the 77th Independence Day, Vivekanand Vidya Vihar conducted a prestigious Investiture Ceremony on the 15th of August. This event not only marked the celebration of the nation's independence but also introduced the new student representatives for various councils. Distinguished guests graced the ceremony, creating an atmosphere filled with patriotism as the National Flag proudly waved and the National Anthem echoed through the gathering.

The Investiture Ceremony, symbolizing leadership and responsibility which saw the induction of promising young leaders into roles such as Head Boys & Girls, Sports & Cultural Captains, SDG, and Class Council Members. The solemn oath-taking by these dedicated individuals, witnessed by their proud parents, marked a significant moment for Vivekanand Vidya Vihar. The event not only honored the nation's freedom but also highlighted the school's commitment to nurturing capable and responsible leaders poised to make positive contributions to the school community.

SDG Initiatives

Swachhata Hi Seva 2023

Fostering Cleanliness and Collective Responsibility

The Swachhata Hi Seva 2023 campaign has reignited volunteerism and community participation, making sanitation a collective responsibility and emphasizing its significance in every sphere of life. Let's live cleaner, make the Earth greener. Cleanliness is an indispensable element of a healthy and fulfilling life, intertwining the physical and spiritual aspects. The importance of maintaining personal hygiene to prevent diseases underscores the need to make cleanliness a habitual practice.

Green Celebrations

Eco-Friendly Ganesha Workshop

A workshop centered on crafting eco-friendly Ganesha idols from paper to celebrate Ganesh Chaturthi aimed to reuse, reduce and recycle waste paper while nurturing creative skills and promoting environmental responsibility. The workshop was a blend of artistic expression and a commitment to sustainability, showcasing the school's dedication to merging tradition with eco-conscious practices.

The enthusiastic participation of the students representing the SDG Club not only demonstrated their passion for sustainable living but also served as an inspiration to their peers. Combining creativity with environmental consciousness, the workshop exemplified the school's dedication towards fostering a generation that cherishes artistic expression while prioritizing responsible stewardship of our planet.

A Generous Celebration: Madad Wali Diwali

In a heartfelt initiative organized by the SDG club, the entire student body of VVV Maral Sarovar came together to commemorate a Madad Wali Diwali. This joyous occasion saw students engaging in a benevolent act of kindness by contributing essential items like clothing, packaged food, sweaters, and stationery. The spirit of generosity was not only a celebration of the festival but also a sincere effort to make a positive impact within their local community.

The event, driven by the collective compassion of the students, aimed to bring joy and support to children and individuals in need, fostering a sense of unity and social responsibility among the VVV Maral Sarovar community.

Spreading Joy and Warmth :

Visit to the Old-Age Home

In a compassionate endeavor aligned with the spirit of "Madad Wali Diwali," Vivekanand Vidya Vihar Maral Sarovar orchestrated a noteworthy Donation Drive. The dedicated members of the SDG Club, comprising Core Captains and Class Captains, undertook a heartening visit to the Khal Bujurg old-age home as part of this impactful initiative.

During their visit, students from our school took the heartfelt initiative of personally delivering handmade Diwali cards to the elderly residents, creating cherished moments of happiness and warmth. Alongside these thoughtful gestures, the students exhibited their generosity by presenting blankets, sarees, and sweets, elevating the festive spirit and spreading joy among the residents.

Beyond the tangible gifts, this experience ignited a sense of empathy and responsibility within our students, nurturing a deep understanding of the importance of caring for the well-being of our elderly community members.

The visit wasn't just about material offerings; it was a catalyst for instilling compassion and empathy in our students. Witnessing the smiles and gratitude on the faces of the elderly residents illuminated the Diwali celebrations and left a lasting impression on the young minds. This heartfelt interaction reinforced the values of empathy and social consciousness among the students, reminding them of the significance of kindness and compassion in creating a more connected and caring

Parent Partnership

A Collaboration for Holistic Development :

Parent-Teacher Meeting

Parent-Teacher Meetings play a pivotal role in sustaining the academic performance of our students. These are held on a regular basis to discuss examination results and to acknowledge the integral role of students, parents, and teachers in fostering holistic child development. The collaborative effort is emphasized as parents actively engage with educators to gain valuable insights into their wards' academic performance. The events often featured unique parent engagement initiatives, incorporating activities like Diya making, Garba dance, and Piano Music, enriching the educational experience for all involved.

Collaborative Engagement at Pre-Primary PTM

The Pre-Primary Section at Vivekanand Vidya Vihar Maral Sarovar recently organized a Pre-Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM) as part of its commitment to fostering collaboration between teachers and parents. The objective was to provide a platform for open discussions, enabling both parties to share insights and work together to enhance the educational experience for the students.

During the PTM, teachers presented a comprehensive overview of each student's performance, highlighting areas of strength and potential areas for improvement. This collaborative effort aimed to develop effective strategies for advancing academic achievement. Additionally, parents were encouraged to actively engage with their child's academic activities, fostering a sense of investment in their education and strengthening the bond between home and school.

Enhancing Education through Parent Engagement

Chrysalis Curriculum and Parent Engagement Programme

A Parent Engagement Programme cum PTM on October 10th for classes I and II, immersed parents in the pedagogy of the "think room" transformation, allowing them to gain valuable insights into their role as active contributors to their children's education

The institution took a significant stride in educational innovation by embracing the transformative Chrysalis curriculum, fostering not only a positive shift in the teaching-learning process but also providing an enriching experience for teachers, parents, and children.

Transformative Insights and Positive Connections

Highlights from Parenting Counseling program

Parents at Vivekanand Vidya Vihar engaged in an insightful parenting counseling program guided by the impactful principle that "A good education is the foundation for a better future. It is the manifestation of the perfections already existing in a child." Led by esteemed speaker Dr. Ali Hussaini, the session addressed crucial factors influencing students' behavior at home, offering effective solutions for positive connections. The event saw a substantial parent turnout, showcasing their keen interest and satisfaction. Post-counseling, parents actively engaged with teachers during the Parent-Teacher Meeting (PTM), expressing newfound confidence in the school, teachers, and their children. The event emphasized the importance of education and strengthened the bonds between parents and the educational institution. Vivekanand Vidya Vihar remains a beacon of educational excellence, fostering a promising future through collaborative efforts.

The competition was a feast for the senses, with each performance marked by finesse in dance, innovative choreography, and the ingenious use of exciting props. As the curtains drew to a close, the audience was treated to a non-competitive performance by our talented students, adding an extra layer of artistic magic to the evening and leaving an indelible mark on the hearts of everyone present. Secretary NSSCK's inspiring words echoed through the auditorium, urging participants to tread the righteous path in the true spirit of competition. The dedication and hard work of the school's teachers were evident in every seamless moment of the event, contributing significantly to its resounding success.

Celebrating Dance Excellence :

VVV Hosts CBSE Sahodaya District Level Patriotic Dance Competition

In a dazzling display of talent and exuberance, we proudly played host to the NSSCK District Level Dance Competition on the vibrant evening of August 21st. The school's auditorium buzzed with infectious enthusiasm as it welcomed over 16 schools, setting the stage for a spectacle of dance and cultural celebration. The audience was treated to 17 mesmerizing performances, each a testament to the creativity and dedication of the participating schools.

NSSCK Chairman, Renu Rai Madam, and Secretary Akhilesh Patidar Sir, graced the occasion, joining other dignitaries in expressing their joy and gratitude for the outstanding competition. The air was thick with anticipation as each school took center stage to showcase their mastery in the art of dance, celebrating a day dedicated to marveling at the district's budding dance talents and celebrating the spirit of patriotism.

Strategic Triumphs:

VVV Hosts NSSCK District Level Chess Competition

The NSSCK District Level Chess Competition was a riveting spectacle that drew in 84 contestants from 17 schools. This impressive turnout is a testament to the enduring popularity and timeless allure of the ancient game of chess. The competition unfolded as a true test of mental strength and patience, demanding logical analysis and calculated risks from the participants.

Among them, a shining star emerged from Vivekanand Vidya Vihar - Ishan Rathore, who clinched the Silver in the U-17 category, whose victory became a moment of celebration for the entire school community.

Student Development Activities

Crafting Creativity :

Introduces Vocational Sewing Course

Vivekanand Vidya Vihar initiated a new vocational skill course in sewing for students from classes 6th to 9th. This course not only enhances hand-eye coordination and motor skills but also sparks creativity, offering students the joy of creating something unique. Covering both basic and advanced sewing techniques, the course introduces students to various types of stitching and hand embroidery.

In this session, students familiarized themselves with essential tailor tools such as measuring tape, scales, scissors, pattern paper, tailor chalo, bobbin, and bobbin case. These tools empower students to craft items like handkerchiefs, sling bags, and tablecloths. Additionally, they will explore the art of embroidery on khadi fabric, adding a distinctive touch to their creations. Mr. Mahesh Namdev introduced students to the world of sewing, guiding them towards perfecting their skills in this engaging and practical vocational course.

Empowering Safety and Wellness :

Fire Safety and First Aid Training Session

The students from classes XI & XII at VVV Maral participated in a specialized session on Fire Safety and First Aid training & awareness. The informative session, led by Jugraj Singh Sir and Bablu Singh Sir from Maral Overseas Limited, covered the types and causes of fires, along with the appropriate actions to ensure personal and peer safety. Practical demonstrations on the correct use of fire extinguishers were conducted under their expert guidance.

Dr. Soni, another representative of Maral Overseas Limited, then conducted a session on the components of a first aid kit, its purposes, and the proper usage to treat cuts, bruises, or burns. Beyond first aid, Dr. Soni offered valuable counsel on health, hygiene, and disease prevention, imparting essential life skills to handle adverse situations. The session aimed at empowering students to be resilient and resourceful individuals, ready to face and overcome challenges during moments of crisis.
